Sir/Madam,

The post of Director of the International Institute for Higher Education in Latin America and the Caribbean (IESALC) in Caracas (Venezuela) is open for recruitment.

Please find herewith information on the duties with which the selected candidate will be entrusted, as well as on the required qualifications, experience and competencies.

As you know, the Secretariat accords great importance to fair geographical distribution and gender, especially at the senior level. We should be grateful, therefore, if you would assist us in achieving a more balanced geographical distribution, as well as an equitable representation of women, by encouraging appropriate and qualified candidates to apply.

Candidates for this post should apply online, via the dedicated UNESCO website, Careers, as of now and well before the closing date, and ensure that applications are well received in the system. Candidates will receive an automatic acknowledgement of receipt by email confirming the registration of their applications.

It is important to note that all applications must be correctly submitted by 30 September 2018 at the latest. Should you have any queries, please send an email to staffingteam@unesco.org.

Exceptionally, candidates without access to the Internet shall submit their application, quoting the post number: "3VEED0001IH", to the following address below:

Director
Bureau of Human Resources Management (HRM)
UNESCO
7 place de Fontenoy
75352 Paris 07-SP
France

Only applications received at this address within the stipulated deadline can be considered to ensure equitable treatment to all applications received.

In order for us to continue to be equal to our mission, it is essential for us to have outstanding candidates to fill this post. I count on your cooperation to achieve this goal and invite you to disseminate the vacancy announcement to nationals of your country using the channels you consider most appropriate.

Accept, Sir/Madam, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Audrey Azoulay

OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

The UNESCO International Institute for Higher Education in Latin America and the Caribbean (IESALC) is an integral part of UNESCO's Education Sector, operating with statutory institutional autonomy under the guidance of its Governing Board. IESALC promotes an integrated approach to the development and renewal of higher education in Latin America and the Caribbean as well as consolidates the expansion and improves the relevance and quality of higher education systems in order to meet the region's present and future needs.

Under the authority of UNESCO's Director-General and the direct supervision of the Assistant Director-General for Education, the incumbent, in close collaboration with the UNESCO Offices in Latin America and the Caribbean, provides intellectual leadership and strategic vision to IESALC's regional programme and staff, ensuring that IESALC contributes fully to the achievement of UNESCO's objectives.

Guided by the general policies established by the Governing Board for the IESALC's programme and budget, the incumbent is responsible for administering the Institute and for planning, executing and reporting on its programme and budget. The incumbent will also ensure that IESALC fully contributes to the achievement of UNESCO's Education programme objectives in the context of implementation of the Goal 4 (Education) of the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda. The incumbent's responsibilities also include human resource planning, recruitment and performance management, in order to develop motivated and effective teams with appropriate competencies to achieve IESALC's objectives; resource mobilization; and, acting as the external advocate for IESALC, liaising with financial partners and ministries of education, as well as with IESALC's other stakeholders. He/she will also maintain close cooperation with the national authorities, United Nations agencies, development banks, NGOs and bilateral organizations, with a view to implement, monitor and evaluate programmes in the area of higher education in the region, which is characterized by a middle-income countries' context. In close cooperation with the UNESCO Offices in Latin America and the Caribbean, the incumbent will develop activities to strengthen regional cooperation and fund-raising in the field, while collaborating with academic institutions, both public and private.
