QUESTION OF : PROVIDING FAST TRACK PROCEDURES FOR EFFECTIVELY REPORTING SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND ABUSE OF CHILDREN

The General Assembly

Deeply concerned about the increasing cases of abuse of children which is compounded by socio-economic factors involving work and family values,

Expressing deep concern about cases where a considerable number of children are involved in child labour, comprising child prostitution and child trafficking, which are sources of revenue for low-income families,

Declaring that children pitched in refugee camps, in war-torn countries, easily become potential victims of trafficking and sexual abuse,

Further deploring cases where children are deprived of education and lack of knowledge pertaining to sex education,

Deeply regretting that many children are routinely exposed to sexual abuse by either strangers or their closed ones, and that such manoeuvres grossly violate children’s rights and adversely affect their long-term psychology and their future,

1 Expresses its appreciation where The United Nations, Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisations (UNESCO) and the United Nations (UN) became a prime mover to promote equal opportunity through its sponsorships via world conferences;

2 Supports the implementation of free sex education in all schools, with assistance of the national and international Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO’s) such as the Global Fund for Children (GFC), thus promoting a much more productive and a safer society;

3 Expresses its satisfaction towards the National Crime Agency (NCA) for having stimulated new technological capabilities to identify and safeguard children;

4 Takes into consideration that the United Nations is to announce ambitious plans to eliminate child labour by 2020, following research which revealed that high growth in developing nations will not substantially reduce the number of children working worldwide;

5 Encourages the United Nations Children Fund’s (UNICEF) core commitments in line with the convention on the rights of the child to ensure the growth of children in an environment where they will be cared for and protected against violence, abuse and exploitation;
6 Urges Governments to take additional steps to enact comprehensive anti-trafficking laws and increase law enforcement efforts against internal trafficking of children for sexual exploitation, forced marriages and involuntary services;

7 Seeks the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) to monitor and evaluate conditions of human rights in countries around the world and identifying major areas of concern, thereby including a system of special procedure, expert advice, and a complaint procedure;

8 Recommends a support structure to reinforce parenting skills and monitor the child’s well-being with a view to improve and protect the future generation;

9 Considers the implementation of major awareness-raising campaigns to address the issue of commercial sexual exploitation;

10 Proclaims that the Human Rights Committee (HRC) with the assistance of the Committee of the Rights of Children (CRC) to implement stringent laws in order to strengthen the existing legislation and policies, sentence lengthening and civil commitment and enhanced detection and control;

11 Requests the implementation of human rights aspects to develop countries healthily with proper and fair legislations, using it as a tool to fight for justice;

12 Further invites the United Nations (UN) and the Non-Profit Organisation’s (NGO) to provide financial help and services to set up an adequate education system where children with poor facilities are targeted;

13 Further requests host countries accommodating refugees to secure camps by introducing regular police patrols, thus preventing sexual harassments and human trafficking;

14 Requests support from members of the house to support this resolution as Human Rights will help to provide firm laws to effectively report and eliminate child abuse and exploitation.
