QUESTION OF: STRENGTHENING NATIONAL CAPACITIES FOR CONFLICT MANAGEMENT AND LAYING THE FOUNDATIONS FOR SUSTAINABLE PEACE AND DEVELOPMENT

The General Assembly,

Alarmed by the rise in social tension which is triggering complex interaction among ethnic and religious groups, thus endangering peace and unity among citizens,

Noting with regret that certain countries lack necessary tools and technology as well as expertise to deal with conflict before and during its outbreak,

Deploring the fact that women are prone to be used as tools of war and that their participation in conflict management is minimal,

Further deploring that non-state actors acts threatens international peace and security, thus hindering development globally,

Alarmed by the proliferation of unethical arms trade, nuclear weapons and arms trafficking worldwide which jeopardises global peace and development,

1. Appeals to Member States to provide more resources to developing countries which often have to deal with the most conflicting situations so that they can address them adequately;

2. Fully supports the request for UN Peacekeeping officers to assess the state of each country in terms of sustainable peace and development on a regular basis through reports;

3. Urges institutions in all nations to sensitize its citizens about the dangers and consequences of conflicts;
