PART II – ESTABLISHMENT AND CONSTITUTION

3. Establishment of the Open University of Mauritius

(1) There is established, for the purposes of this Act, the Open University of Mauritius which shall -

(a) be a body corporate;

(b) have a common seal;

(c) operate in accordance with this Act and the Statutes.

(2) The common seal referred to in subsection (1) (b) shall –

(a) be kept in such custody as the Council may direct and be used only with the approval of the Council;
(b) be judicially noticed by every Court and, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to have been duly affixed to any document of the University.

4. Objects of the University

The objects of the University shall be -

(a) to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge by a diversity of means, including particularly the use of communication technologies;

(b) to provide wider opportunities for higher education to the population and to promote lifelong learning;

(c) to encourage the use of open and distance learning at all levels of education and training through collaboration, optimal use of existing resources and a set of good practices;

(d) to encourage and promote scholarship and conduct research and development in educational technology and related matters.

5. Functions and powers of the University

(1) The functions of the University shall be to -

(a) act as the national focal point for open and distance learning;

(b) set standards for the provision of open and distance learning;

(c) provide education and training by a diversity of means in such branches of knowledge, technology, vocations and professions as the University may determine from time to time;
(d) plan and prescribe courses of study for degrees, diplomas or certificates;

(e) hold examinations and confer degrees, diplomas, certificates or other academic distinctions or recognitions on persons who have successfully pursued a course of study or conducted research in accordance with the Statutes;

(f) institute professorships, lectureships, tutorships and other academic positions necessary for imparting instruction, for preparing educational material or for conducting other academic activities, including supervision, designing and delivery of courses and evaluation of the work done by learners and to appoint persons to such positions;

(g) institute and award fellowships, scholarships, prizes and such other awards for recognition of merit as the University may deem fit;

(h) establish and maintain Regional Centres within this region of the world for the purpose of co-ordinating and supervising the work of regional study centres in the region and for performing such other functions as may be conferred on them by the Academic Board;

(i) establish, maintain or recognise regional study centres for the purpose of advising, counseling, or rendering any other assistance required by, learners;

(j) provide for the preparation, reception and distribution of instructional materials through differentiated media, including terrestrial, satellite, video, radio, print, web or compact disc media;
(k) make provision for research and development in educational technology and related matters;

(l) appoint, either on contract or otherwise, visiting professors, consultants, fellows, scholars, artists, course writers and other persons who may contribute to the advancement of the objects of the University;

(m) provide, control and maintain discipline among the learners and all categories of employees and to lay down the conditions of service of such employees, including their codes of conduct;

(n) determine standards and to specify conditions for the admission of learners to courses of study at the University, which may include examination, evaluation and any other method of testing.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the University may -

(a) receive donations and gifts, contract loans and acquire, hold, maintain and dispose of any property, movable or immovable, including trust and Government property, for the purposes of the University;

(b) demand and receive such fees and charges as may be prescribed in regulations;

(c) co-operate with other universities and institutions of higher learning, and professional bodies and organisations for such purposes as the University considers necessary, including the award of joint degrees;

(d) enter into such contract or other arrangement as may be necessary;
(e) subject to any other enactment, establish such broadcasting facility as may be required to enable the University to perform its functions;

(f) do all such acts as may be necessary for, or incidental to, the attainment of all or any of the objects of the University and the performance of its functions.

6. Admission of learners

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the University shall be open to all persons.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall require the University to -

(a) admit to any course of study or research any person who does not possess the prescribed academic qualifications or standard, or prior experiential learning;

(b) retain on its roll a learner whose academic record is below the minimum standard required for the award of a degree, or other academic qualification; or

(c) admit or retain any learner whose conduct is prejudicial to its interests, or the rights and privileges of other learners or of the staff.

7. Inquiries

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Prime Minister may, in respect of any matter connected with the University, institute an inquiry to be made by such person as he may appoint, in such manner as he may determine.

(2) Where the Prime Minister decides to institute an inquiry under subsection (1), he shall, in every case, give notice to the Chairperson of the Council of his intention to institute an inquiry and the Council shall be entitled to be represented at such inquiry.

(3) The Prime Minister -

(a) shall communicate to the Council his views with reference to the result of any such inquiry; and

(b) may, after ascertaining the opinion of the Council thereon, advise the University regarding the action to be taken and fix a time-limit for taking such action.

(4) The Council shall, within the time-limit so fixed, report to the Prime Minister the action taken or proposed to be taken on any advice tendered under subsection (3)(b).

(5) Where the Council does not take action within the time fixed or the action taken by the Council is, in the opinion of the Prime Minister, not satisfactory, the Prime Minister may, after considering any explanation or representation made by the Council, issue such directions as he may deem fit and the Council shall comply with any such directions.
