PRESS COMMUNIQUÉ

Queen's Young Leaders Awards

Applications/nominations are invited for the Queen’s Young Leaders Awards.

The Queen’s Young Leaders Awards was launched on 9th July 2014 at Buckingham Palace by Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Cambridge and Prince Harry having as purpose to find exceptional young people from every Commonwealth nation to become the Queen’s Young Leaders.

Over the next four years, this new, unique programme will discover, celebrate and support young people who are transforming their own lives and the futures of others around them. Each year 60 award winners will be rewarded with a tailored package of training, mentoring and networking opportunities, and provided with one-week residential programme in the UK, during which they will receive their award from Her Majesty The Queen. With their skills and confidence strengthened, they will continue to change the lives of those around them and inspire the next generation of young leaders.

Applicants/nominees must be aged between 18 and 29 for the year of award and be citizens of a Commonwealth country.

Applications/nominations should be made within 60 days (as from 12 August 2014).
Application form can be filled online on the following website: www.queensyoungleaders.com/nominate/

Any questions can be addressed to Annike Spiller at The Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Trust. annike.spiller@qejubileetrust.org.
