3. Conditions of Scholarship

3.1 The scholarship covers tuition fees, allowances and international airfares as approved by the New Zealand authorities.

3.2 Candidates should have secured admission to their preferred New Zealand education institution. Evidence of such admission or even a conditional offer should be attached to the application form.

3.3 The proposed level of study should be at a higher level than qualifications already earned.

3.4 Candidates having already benefited from a scholarship through the Government of Mauritius will not be eligible to apply for this scholarship.

3.5 Beneficiaries of scholarships must enter into a bond, thereby committing themselves to return to Mauritius immediately after completion of their studies and work for at least five years in the public or private sector.

3.6 Only the best qualified candidates will be selected. Candidates who would not have been informed of their nomination within six weeks as from the closing date for application should consider that they have not been selected.

3.7 The final decision to award the scholarships rests with the New Zealand Authorities.

4. Mode of Application

4.1 Applications must be made on the prescribed form available at the Scholarships Section, Ministry of Education and Human Resources, 1st Floor, MITD House, Phoenix, or downloaded from the Ministry’s website:

  http://ministry-education.gov.mu

Applicants may also submit applications on-line on the following website:

  http://www.gov.mu
However, applicants should submit originals along with copies of all supporting documents after the online application which should not be later than the closing date specified below.

4.2 Three references (not more than 24 months old) on official letterhead, supporting the scholarship application to study in New Zealand, and relevant to their proposed study programme or research topic should be submitted. References should be provided from the applicant’s current employer and a former lecturer or academic supervisor (in an area of study relevant to the application), and where possible, a relevant government or community based organization.

4.3 Candidates should submit:

(i) A 500-word statement describing the specific skills and knowledge the applicant wishes to gain from the proposed study and how this will contribute to the applicant’s current and/or future job;

(ii) a 500-word statement describing how the applicant’s proposed area of study will enable them to contribute to the social or economic development of their home country; and

(iii) A 500-word statement outlining the proposed research topic.

4.4 Candidates should ensure that originals along with certified copies of certificates, transcripts of final university results/marksheets and all other relevant documents relating to their qualifications are submitted to the Scholarships Section by the closing date. Non-submission of these documents on time will result in their elimination from the selection exercise. Certification of documents can be done at the Scholarships Section of the Ministry of Education and Human Resources or at the Careers Guidance Service in Rose Hill.

4.5 The completed Application Form along with all supporting documents should be submitted to the Scholarships Section of the Ministry by Friday 10 May 2013 at 14.00 hours at latest. Where original documents are not in English, certified true copies of official English translations should be provided at the time of application.

4.6 Responsible parties of applicants not in Mauritius may apply on behalf of their wards.
4.7 Applicants already in employment, whether public or private, must fill in the application form in duplicate. One copy thereof along with the relevant supporting documents should be submitted to the Scholarships Section, and one copy to the applicant’s employer who has to confirm, in writing, whether the applicant would be released for the course, and if so, on what terms and conditions. Such information should be made available by the closing date.

4.8 A Communiqué will be placed on the website in due course to inform applicants that the selection exercise has been completed.
